

Faculty of Health

'International Health and Medical Students Professional Experience Program'

'A Great Opportunity for Professional Growth and Enrichment'

'Opportunities for Cultural and Personal Development'

Queensland University of Technology
Brisbane Australia

Dates: 20th July -10th August 2013

Overview: A 3-week Professional and Cultural experience, during which students will examine relevant aspects of the Australian Health System and compare and contrast these with the system in China. Visit health sector organisations; meet Australian health officials and health care providers. Students will be provided with a systematic framework within which to improve their health professional English.

- Delivered at QUT, Kelvin Grove Campus ,Brisbane, Australia
- Recognition of participation
- Course developed and delivered by experts in health services

Cost: $3135.00/incl GST

Includes; accommodation, tuition, cultural activities & formal program
Program is subject to minimum enrolments of twenty students.

Website: www.qut.edu.au

More Information: Kari Melvin, Health Projects Officer –
Enterprise International and Engagement. Email: kari.melvin@qut.edu.au
Faculty of Health | Queensland University of Technology
Victoria Park Rd | Kelvin Grove QLD 4059 | Australia
T: +61 7 3138 8210 | F: +61 7 3138 3487

